

The UCI Sustainability Resource Center and Community Resilience Projects Present:

SCREENING, Q&A, AND WORKSHOP WITH THE LEAD ACTOR AND DIRECTOR OF

THE NORTH POLE

Screening of the North Pole & Talk Back

January 22, 2020 / 11:30 am - 1:30 pm / Dr. White Room, UCI Cross-Cultural Center
Executive Produced by award-winning actor and activist Rosario Dawson, The North Pole: Season Two is a political comedy web series about four friends in North Oakland that tackles the big issues of our time: Climate Change. Wildfire. Immigration. Gentrification. Race. And Gluten Free Donuts. The screening will be followed by a Q&A with the lead actor, Santiago Rosas, and director/co-writer, Yvan Iturriaga.

Filmmaking Across Borders: Disrupting Stereotypes, Creating Home

January 23, 2020 / 5:00 pm - 6:30 pm / Social Ecology 101
In this era of mass migration and mass gentrification, where do we call home? In this interactive filmmaking and creative activism workshop, led by Yvan and Santiago, we will disrupt the mainstream narrative and show how we can tell stories of our homes with love and authenticity. Combining creative writing and film technique, all participants will create one original story outline or show concept to take home with them.

Check out these events on Facebook. Please RSVP here.

Campus Co-Hosts:

UCI Sustainability
Resource Center

UCI Community Resilience

Co-hosts are presently seeking co-sponsors.